Please join us for the Chapter's fourth Joint-Chapter Dinner and Meeting to be held at Wildfire in Tyson's Galleria! This event will feature a social hour, family-style dinner and technical presentation about The Residences at Pier 5 – Atrium and Upper Walkway Restoration project, presented by Caitlin J. Maggiano, PE of Klein & Hoffman. You don't want to miss this event!

Bring a guest or anyone with an interest in learning more about the IIBEC Mid-Atlantic Chapter and/or ICRI Baltimore/Washington Chapter! For questions or additional information, please contact our Chapter President Anthony Dukes at (864) 490-4631 or adukes@wje.com.

Reservations are required in advance by September 7, 2026 at 12:00PM EST.

Event Information:

5:30 Registration & Social Hour

6:30 Family-Style Dinner

7:30 Technical Presentation

Technical Presentation Summary:

Examine the investigation and restoration of the atrium and upper walkways at The Residences at Pier 5, a historic condominium complex located within a 1923 cargo pier along the Delaware River in Philadelphia. The case study focuses on identified waterproofing failures, hidden structural deterioration and corrosion of steel framing, as well as evolving repair strategies and construction challenges.

Attendees will gain insight into managing scope adjustments, budget constraints, and long-term durability in complex waterfront rehabilitation projects.

Presenter: Caitlin J. Maggiano, PE – Associate Principal & Branch Manager, Klein & Hoffman (Philadelphia Office); President, ICRI Delaware Valley Chapter.

We look forward to seeing you there!
